

Joining the CRN Advisory Panel

What is the CRN* Advisory Panel?

The CRN Advisory Panel provides strategic advice and expertise to guide the network's development. Members influence change by offering insights, supporting community engagement, and contributing to the network's strategic direction.

Key Features:

- Expertise and Guidance:
 - Comprised of individuals with relevant expertise.
 - Provides strategic advice for research projects.
- Diverse Perspectives:
 - Includes members from sectors such as academia, healthcare, community organisations, and local government.
 - Ensures a range of viewpoints and knowledge bases.
- Objective Feedback:
 - Offers unbiased critiques to enhance research quality and relevance.
 - Evaluates the community impact of projects.
- Strategic Oversight:
 - Aligns research activities with network goals and community needs.
 - Assists in prioritising research topics.
- Networking Opportunities:
 - Facilitates connections with broader resources and stakeholders.
 - Encourages collaboration and partnerships.
- Ethical Considerations:
 - Ensures adherence to ethical standards and practices.
 - Monitors compliance with regulations and community values.

Why Become a CRN Advisory Panel Member?

- Use your expertise to guide and influence the network's strategic direction.
- Enhance your professional network and contribute to meaningful community impact.

What Does It Involve?

- Attend advisory meetings quarterly to half yearly to provide insights and recommendations.
- Engage with network activities and contribute to strategic discussions.

What Support is Available?

- Opportunities for professional collaboration and access to the network's research and findings.
- Recognition and visibility within your professional circles for your contributions.

I'm keen to sign up! What do I do next?

We have already identified potential members of this panel and will be reaching out to them initially; however, if you wish to submit an expression of interest, please email us at hello@mentalwealthmoray.org.uk with the subject 'Advisory Panel Expression of Interest'.

Current Network Members aim to announce the first Advisory Panel meetings by the end of April.

 CRN = Community Research Network*